Community Services Commercialism Procedure for classes with Potential Commercial Content

Within the school property boundary, the institution should not sell a product or service from which the institution can financially benefit; however, products or services may be recommended if the instructor is not affiliated with the product. Cost of classroom supplies sold on site by the instructor should not exceed local retail value. Literature, including flyers and business cards, may be made available to participants before or after class time upon the request of the participant. L'Anse Creuse/ Mount Clemens Adult Community Education and its administration are not responsible for any activities that take place outside the class between the instructor and participants.
